THIS WEEK AT ST. JOHN'S

Happy Friday, Cougars!

Today marked the last full Friday of the school year. The end is so close that we can all feel it! Please keep in mind that next week Friday, the last day of school, is a half day. Extended care is available in the morning but NOT in the afternoon.

We have had a few animal visitors this week- ducklings and guinea hens hatched in 3rd grade (see picture below), butterflies emerged from their cocoons in 1st grade, and the preschool even had a guest dog visit- they all practiced their veterinary skills!

We are still looking for some volunteers for Field Day next week, so please see the attached flyer to join us in that fun activity. I know many parents will be chaperoning end-of-year field trips- thank you so much for helping make these special moments for our students!

Blessings on your weekend. See you next week!

-Ms. Heins

CHAPEL NOTES

Next week is our closing chapel on FRIDAY (not Wednesday). Come join us one last time at 9:00 am to hear God's Word and listen to our choir sing. An awards ceremony will follow.

LIBRARY REMINDER

All library books are due back to the school library ASAP. Unreturned books may result in a delay in receiving report cards at the end of the year.

PTL

A huge thank you to all the parents who helped, donated, and supported our school throughout the year. St. John's is an incredible place to be- and that is in large part due to the families who make it a part of their lives! We appreciate you!

WE NEED YOU!

If you would like to help out on Field Day during the last week of school, please follow the link in the attached flyer to sign up!

PHOTO OF THE WEEK

The 3rd graders have experienced the life cycle of ducks and guinea hens when they hatched some little ones this week!

ATHLETICS

Congratulations to all of our athletes! We loved watching you use your God-given talents during this school year, whether it was on the field, court, and track. Even more than that, we appreciate the incredible witness you have given as you demonstrated God's love towards your teammates and opponents. We can't wait to cheer you on again next year!
