Points to Ponder

- *The man who does not read good books has no advantage over the man who cannot read them.
- *Listening is the shortest distance between two people.
- *Worry pulls tomorrow's cloud over today's sunshine.

Questions to Ask Your Child

- *What was the Christmas program about?
- *What did you like best about your Christmas vacation?
- *What was one of the miracles Jesus performed?
- *What is $400 \div 5$?
- *Who won the Rose Bowl?

Topics to Be Studied

Math-	fractions
Science-	plants
Language-	mystery stories
Social Studies-	The South
Reading-	Lesson 7

Happy New Year! I pray all of you had a wonderful Christmas Holiday. I'd like to thank you for the prayers, gifts, and thoughtful notes you gave me during the Christmas season. I appreciated you thinking of me during the holidays.

Attached to this newsletter is the Book Order for January. Please return them to me by January 18. (Book orders can now be placed online. Please read box below for directions.) I gave each student a coupon to use for a free book ($5 or under) for Christmas. That coupon can be used anytime between now and May.

Please continue to have your child study multiplication facts. You can be the judge of how long you think your child should work on multiplication facts at home. It is important that they do keep looking them over.

Many of the 4th graders are running low on pencils and erasers. Would you please ask your child if he or she needs either of these two items?

I'd like to thank our room parents, Mrs. Schweitzer and Mrs. Knoell, for organizing our class Christmas party. I'd also like to thank Mrs. Upchurch and Mrs. Mauer for helping out during the party. Your help was much appreciated by the students and myself.

This is just a reminder: Since we are starting a new year, you may want to remind your child to study for his or her spelling tests a few minutes each day of the week and study for states/capitals and memory. Remember also to study science and/or social studies notes every night of the week.

The end of the quarter is today, January 11. Please sign the report card envelope and return it by January 14.

All students at St. John's will be going to Racine Lutheran High School by bus on January 31 to celebrate the beginning of Lutheran Schools Week. There will be an opening chapel and a program. Please watch the weekly school newsletter for further Lutheran Schools Week activities.

Great America Read to Succeed

Attached is the Great America Read to Succeed log. You will get a free Great America ticket if you read 6 hours. Fill in the log form every time you read, when you reach 6 hours, bring the form to school. Remember to sign the form.

Scholastic Book Orders

There are now two options for ordering from the scholastic book orders. You can continue to fill in the order form on the paper copies that come home, or you can go online to order and pay by credit card.
